Ballroom Dance. . . to benefit the Madison Square Center for the Arts in Madison will be held on Friday, April 25, at the Center and will feature a Magnolia Ballroom style recorded dance music program. This will be an excellent opportunity for the ballroom community to dance on the Center's large and recently refinished dance floor and a chance to show the Center the potential for future ballroom events. Plus... it's a benefit. So mark your calendars, help spread the word, and watch for more details to follow.
